CHRISTMAS IN THE OLD GRANARY IS EXTRA SPECIAL

JUL I SALT

Af køkkenchef Rasmus Møller Nielsen

Når året går på hæld, står SALT naturligvis i julens tegn. En tid som forbindes med faste traditioner, hygge og ikke mindst en mulighed for at smage alle sæsonens livretter uden dårlig samvittighed.

SALT SERVERET JULEBUFFET

Fra fredag den 22. november og resten af julen serverer vi i frokosten vores store julebord. Vi har nøje udvalgt alle vores egne livretter og favoritter – fra sild, andeconfit og hjemmelavet sylte til nødder, tyttebær og saltbagt kvæde. Det er et julebord, hvor tradition og fornyelse mødes i et SALT udtryk. For at gøre oplevelsen komplet tilbyder vi et bredt udvalg af akvavit og øl fra mindre bryghuse.

Sæt dig blot tilbage og nyd et par timer i godt selskab. Vores bud på julens frokosttraditioner serverer vi som små anretninger og deleretter ved bordet.

Om aftenen serverer vi en julemenu, som også får dig i den helt rigtige julestemning.

Glædelig jul – og velkommen i SALT!

🇬🇧 CHRISTMAS IN THE SALT RESTAURANT

By Head Chef Rasmus Møller Nielsen

As the year is gradually fading, the SALT restaurant is naturally characterised by all things Christmas. It is a time of year that is very much associated with traditions, togetherness and – not least – the opportunity to taste all of the season’s favourite dishes – without having a guilty conscience!

SALT SERVED CHRISTMAS BUFFET

Starting on Friday November 22nd and right through to Christmas, for lunch we will be serving from our bounteous Christmas buffet. We have carefully selected our favourite dishes – everything from pickled herring, confit of duck and homemade brawn to nuts, cranberries and salt-baked quince. Our Christmas buffet is an Eldorado where tradition and innovation meet, reflecting the values of the SALT restaurant. To complement the fine food, we will be offering a wide selection of aquavit and beer from small breweries.

Just take a seat, relax and enjoy some time in good company: we will serve our interpretation of Christmas lunch traditions at your table, as small individual dishes or as dishes to share.

During the evenings, we will be serving a Christmas dinner menu that will undoubtedly put you in the perfect Christmas frame of mind.

Happy Christmas – and welcome to the SALT restaurant!

VORES GUIDE TIL JUL I KØBENHAVN

København osrer af hygge og god stemning i julemånederne. Byens museer inviterer til julearrangementer, og byens gader er alle julepyntet på smukkeste vis. Jul i Tivoli er et must, men prøv også byens hyggelige julemarkeder og andre traditioner som tænding af juletræet på Rådhuspladsen og skøjtebanen på Frederiksberg.

Vi guider dig her til vores top 5 julebegivenheder i København.

JUL I TIVOLI

Man kan ikke sige jul i København uden at sige jul i Tivoli. Traditionen tro er hele parken udsmykket med julepynt og -lys. Lysene skaber sammen med boderne og julemusikken, som flyder gennem hele parken, den helt unikke Tivoli juleatmosfære.

Du kan også nyde Tivolis øvrige juletraditioner som Tivolis Nisseband, som spiller forskellige steder i haven og gå på opdagelse på Honningkageslottet, Tivolis helt særlige honningkageværksted. Oplev det hundrede mand store Luciaoptog den 13. december og se det flotte julelysshow i Kinaområdet, der får 16.000 lys til at funkler over dig.

SKØJTEBANEN PÅ FREDERIKSBERG RUNDDEL

Fra slutningen af november omdannes Frederiksberg Runddel til en skøjtebane – smukt oplyst af lyskæder fra træerne. Oplev den hyggelige stemning ved indgangen til Frederiksberg have og nyd udsigten til Frederiksberg Allé. Det er gratis at stå på banen. Man kan stå i sine egne skøjter eller leje et par til kr. 50.

JULESHOPPING

Ved juletid er det ekstra hyggeligt med en shoppetur i Københavns gader blandt de mange hjerter, stjerner og blinkende lys. Butikkerne sørger endda ofte for særlige juletilbud, når alle julegaverne skal købes. Og så er der selvfølgelig alle de hyggelige julemarkeder rundt omkring, hvor duften af brændte mandler og gløgg fylder byrummet. Det får julestemningen helt i top!

JULETRÆET PÅ RÅDHUSPLADSEN

Det er en gammel tradition, at juletræet på Rådhuspladsen tændes første søndag i advent. I år sker det søndag den 3. december. Træet er en bæredygtig rødgran og vejer fem ton og er ca. 20 meter højt. Juletræet bliver tændt kl. 16.00 og er et smukt syn og værd at opleve.

HOLD VARMEN OG FIND HYGGEN

Efter en dag med gode oplevelser kan I gå tilbage til hotellet og hygge jer i SALT bar med SALTs julefristelser. Vores køkkenchef sørger hvert år for dejlig gløgg og julebag, som får enhver i julestemning.

Rigtig glædelig jul!

🇬🇧 OUR GUIDE TO CHRISTMASTIDE IN COPENHAGEN

As the festive season approaches, Copenhagen gives itself over wholeheartedly to the joy, warmth and spirit of Christmas. The city's streets, beautifully decorated with traditional decorations, the open-air ice rink at Frederiksberg is open and there are even open invitations to Christmas events at many of the city's museums. Do not miss the atmosphere of Christmas in the Tivoli Gardens and be sure to visit some of the Christmas markets to be found all over Copenhagen. When the lights at the Christmas tree in City Hall Square are lit, the "oohs" and "aahs" can almost be heard all over the city!

Below we tell you about five of our favourite Copenhagen Christmas things.

CHRISTMAS IN TIVOLI GARDENS

Christmas in the Tivoli Gardens is synonymous with Christmastide in Copenhagen. As tradition dictates, there are beautiful decorations and lights that sparkle throughout the gardens. The sparkling lights, the booths exuding aromas of Christmas and the sound of Christmas tunes create Tivoli Gardens' very own Christmas atmosphere.

Magasin du nord

Christmastide in Tivoli Gardens is full of traditions for you to enjoy – the Tivoli Pixie Band, which performs at various sites in the gardens, the Gingerbread Palace that is Tivoli Gardens' very special gingerbread workshop, the Christmas light show in the Chinese area of the gardens with 16,000 sparkling, starry lights and, on December 13th, the Lucia procession.

THE ICE RINK AT FREDERIKSBERG CIRCUS

From late November, Frederiksberg Circus becomes an open-air ice rink – attractively illuminated with sparkling garlands of lights. Located at the entrance to Frederiksberg Park, the rink reflects a happy atmosphere as laughter and yells of joy echo across the ice in the frosty air. Use of the rink is free and you may bring your own skates or hire a pair for DKK 50.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING IN COPENHAGEN

Shopping is often a satisfying pastime but there is nothing quite like Christmas shopping in Copenhagen – the streets decorated with hearts, Christmas stars and sparkling lights and the shops and stores that often have extra specials for your Christmas stocking! Slip down a side street, follow the aroma of roast almonds, chestnuts and gløgg and you will often find a small Christmas market – Christmas shopping at its very best.

THE CHRISTMAS TREE AT CITY HALL SQUARE

One of Copenhagen's Christmas traditions is that the lights on the Christmas Tree on City Hall Square spring to light on the First Sunday of Advent. 2017 is no exception and the ceremony will take place on December 3rd at 16:00 hrs. The tree is an organically cultivated Norway spruce, some 20 metres (65 ft.) high and weighs about 5 tons. Once lit, Christmas has really come to Copenhagen and it is both a beautiful and majestic sight.

INNER WARMTH IN COSY SURROUNDINGS

After a day of Christmas treats, the perfect conclusion to the day is getting back to the hotel and relaxing in the warmth of the SALT bar, enjoying some of our head chef's seasonal temptations – including gløgg and Christmas bakes – which are enough to bring the Christmas spirit out in everybody.

Happy Christmas!

🇩🇰 JUL I DET GAMLE PAKHUS ER NOGET GANSKE SÆRLIGT

Hotellens funktionschef, Sanne, har været ansat i 21 år, og når kalenderen siger medio november bliver juletræerne pyntet, julepynten sættes op, og julestemningen er i top:

"Jul i det gamle pakhus er noget ganske særligt. Duften af gløgg, bagværk og and i ovnen. Travlheden over hele hotellet blandt kollegaerne. Det syder og bobler – det kan vi li," fortæller Sanne.

Valget af julepynt er alt andet end tilfældigt, og Sanne har i lang tid forinden tænkt over årets tema og farver: "Forberedelserne begynder tidligt. Allerede i forsommeren beslutter vi pynten til årets julefester. Vi laver et moodboard, hvor alle tanker og ideer drøftes, så den helt rigtige stemning skabes. I år bruger vi naturmaterialer og friske blomster – et enkelt, rustikt og æstetisk udtryk uden at gå på kompromis med den danske "hygge". Pynten til julefesterne er holdt i kobber og grå toner med islet af hvidt. I det øvrige hus går den mørkerøde farve igen på baggrund af naturlig pynt og gran," fortæller Sanne.

Og når der så skal julepyntes, er Sanne ikke i tvivl:

"Det er sjovest at pynte til julefesterne."

Gå en tur i lobbyen, nyd den hyggelige julestemning og forkæl dig selv med SALTs hjemmelavede gløgg og julekager i baren.

Rigtig glædelig jul!

🇬🇧 CHRISTMAS IN THE OLD GRANARY IS EXTRA SPECIAL

Our Function Manager, Sanne, has been at the hotel for 21 years and each year, when mid-November arrives, her "to do" list includes decorating the Christmas trees, hanging the Christmas decorations and ensuring an abundance of Christmas spirit.

"Christmas in the old granary is extra special. The aromas of gløgg, Christmas baking and duck roasting in the oven, the bustle of busy colleagues everywhere – everything is bubbling and we love it," says Sanne.

The choice of Christmas decorations is never a random choice and Sanne starts giving thought to themes and colours well in advance: "The preparations start very early in the year. We decide on the decorations for the Christmas parties in the early summer. We set up a mood board to be sure as many ideas as possible are available for discussion to help us create the perfect Christmas ambience. This year we are using only natural materials and fresh cut flowers, creating a simple, natural and aesthetic expression – without compromising our Danish "hygge". The decorations for the Christmas parties have predominantly copper and grey tones, with dashes of white. In the rest of the hotel, the dark red colour is set against a background of natural decorations and fir," Sanne tells us.

When it comes to Christmas decorating, Sanne is in no doubt:

"The best part is decorating for the Christmas parties"

Stroll through the lobby, soak up the cosy atmosphere of Christmas and treat yourself to a glass of homemade gløgg and some Christmas cookies in the SALT bar.

We wish you a Merry Christmas!

JULEMARKEDER I KØBENHAVN

HELE DECEMBER

En af Københavns absolut hyggeligste juletraditioner er byens mange julemarkeder, der alle emmer af forventningsfuld julestemning. Igen i år vil der være rig mulighed for at gå på opdagelse på et af de stemningsfulde markeder, der er placeret rundt i hele byen.

Tag for eksempel hele familien med på Højbro Plads Julemarked eller Kongens Nytorv Julemarked. Begge markeder er placeret i Københavns store shoppingsområde og kan derfor opleves i forbindelse med det obligatoriske julegaveindkøb. Man kan også lægge vejen forbi det stemningsfulde Nyhavn Julemarked, hvor de mange velduftende juleboder er placeret langs den idylliske kanal.

"FAMILY STORIES" PÅ STATENS MUSEUM FOR KUNST

NOVEMBER OG DECEMBER

Oplev udstillingen "Family Stories" på Statens Museum for Kunst. Det er den anerkendte, britiske kunstner Gillian Wearing, der står bag den rørende udstilling, som består af både videoværker, fotografiske værker og skulpturer. Wearing er kendt for værker, der koncentrerer sig om "det almindelige menneske", og det er netop dette, man kan opleve i den aktuelle udstilling.

I forbindelse med udstillingen vil der være forskellige arrangementer, værksteder og events, der alle vil koncentrere sig om det at være en familie i dag.

ROYAL COPENHAGENS JULEBORDE

HELE DECEMBER

I Royal Copenhagens butik på Amagertorv kan man opleve en af de mest populære juletraditioner i byen. Dette er Royal Copenhagens juleborde, der hvert år dekorerer af en række fremtrædende kulturpersonligheder. Hver dekoratør designer et bord med Royal Copenhagens porcelæn og giver herved sit personlige bud på et smukt og stemningsfuldt julebord.

I år er det prominente personligheder inden for dansk mode, der vil give deres kreative bidrag til Royal Copenhagens hyggelige juletradition.

COPENHAGEN'S CHRISTMAS MARKETS

THROUGHOUT DECEMBER

During December, Copenhagen abounds with Christmas markets, large and small, and they all exude that special Christmas atmosphere of joy and expectancy. In this respect, 2017 will be no different from all the other years – there will be ample opportunities to explore markets that are dotted all over the city.

Close to the hotel, you will find the Højbro Plads Christmas market and the Kongens Nytorv Christmas market. They are both in very close proximity to the main shopping areas and, to reach them, it is almost impossible to avoid the evocative Nyhavn Christmas market with its stalls decoratively lining the canal. Incorporating these markets with more traditional store shopping is very easy.

"FAMILY STORIES" AT THE NATIONAL GALLERY (SMK)

NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER

The exhibition "Family Stories" at the National Gallery features works by the recognised British artist, Gillian Wearing and consists of video works, photographic works and sculptures. Gillian Wearing's works are primarily focussed on "normal people" and this is the focal point of this touching exhibition.

In conjunction with the exhibition, there will also be workshops and events for which "being a family today" will be the theme.

ROYAL COPENHAGEN'S CHRISTMAS TABLES

THROUGHOUT DECEMBER

One of the very popular Christmas traditions in Copenhagen is the exhibition of Christmas Tables at the Royal Copenhagen shop at Amagertorv (part of Strøget). Each year, Royal Copenhagen invites a number of well-known Danish personalities to present their interpretation of a Christmas Table, laid and decorated for Christmas Dinner and, of course, using only porcelain by Royal Copenhagen. The decorators who contribute to this year's tradition are personalities from the Danish fashion and haute couture world.

🇩🇰 HISTORIENS VINGESUS

Få af Københavns gamle bygninger er så velbevarede som pakhuset, hvor Admiral Hotel og SALT ligger i dag. Hotellet summer af historiens vingesus.

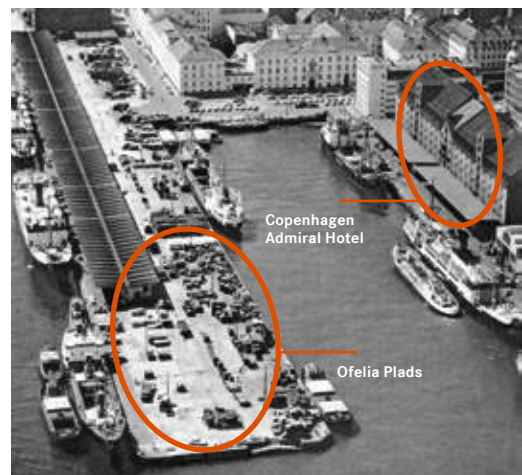

Helt tilbage i 1787 blev pakhuset opført som korntørringsmagasin for handelsfirmaet Pingel, Meyer, Prætorius & Co. og står i dag med sin arkitektoniske skønhed, som et vidnesbyrd om 1780'ernes rige handelsperiode. Pakhuset kunne rumme 30.000 tønder korn, og en korntørringsovn blev installeret for kongelig regning.

Pakhuset fungerede som havnens bankende hjerte og et uudværligt knudepunkt for skibstrafikken til resten af Danmark og den vide verden.

KONGER OG KRIG

Apropos kongeriget, var det i 1794 at Christiansborg brændte ned til grunden, og kongefamilien blev hjemløse. Heldigvis havde fire rige adelsfamilier ladet den berømte arkitekt Nicolai Eigtved tegne fire palæer i bedste rokokostil omkring en ottekantet plads på den anden side af Toldbodgade tæt på pakhuset. Paladset blev kendt som Amalienborg og ligger stadig få minutters gang fra Admiral Hotel.

Bygningen har i århundreder været brændpunkt for historiske begivenheder i byen – ikke mindst Slaget på Rheden i 1801 og englændernes bombardement af byen i 1807, der bogstaveligt talt foregik lige uden for døren.

🇬🇧 THE PRESENCE OF HISTORY

Very few of Copenhagen's old buildings are as well preserved as the old granary, which today houses the Copenhagen Admiral Hotel and SALT restaurant and bar. The hotel positively oozes history.

Built in 1787, the warehouse was constructed as a granary with grain drying facilities for the trading company Pingel, Meyer, Prætorius & Co. Its imposing architectonic presence still bears witness to the golden age of trade in the 1780s. Back in the day the granary could hold up to 30,000 barrels of grain, all dried in the drying oven installed by royal commission. The granary was the bustling harbour's heart, vital for the shipping trade to the Danish provinces and the world at large.

KINGS AND WARS

As far as monarchical history goes, in 1794, Christiansborg Palace was razed to the ground and the Royal Family was homeless. By lucky coincidence, four noble families had commissioned the renowned architect, Nicolai Eigtved, to draw up plans for four imposing mansions to be placed around an octagonal plaza, just on the other side of Toldbodgade from the granary. The Royal Family obtained the rights to these mansions and they eventually became the Amalienborg Palace we know today, just a few steps from the Copenhagen Admiral Hotel.

For almost two and a half centuries, our building has been in the midst of historic events, not least in conjunction with the 1801 Battle of Copenhagen and the later 1807 Battle of Copenhagen, both of which took place virtually on our doorstep!

🇩🇰 VORES NABOER

2 MINUTTERS GANG FRA HOTELLET:

Amalienborg Slot, hvor dronningen og prinsgemalen bor, er bygget i 1700-tallet og anses for et af de største værker i den danske rokokokarkitektur.

Hver dag klokken 11.30, når dronningen er hjemme, marcherer Den Kongelige Livgarde fra Rosenborg Slot igennem byen til Amalienborg. Der er vagtskifte klokken 12.00 på Amalienborg Slotsplads. Vores reception er behjælpelig med, hvor i byen gardererne kan ses.

Ofelia Plads er Københavns nye bylivsplads, der danner ramme for et væld af kulturarrangementer hele året. Under Ofelia Plads findes et underjordisk parkeringsanlæg, mens der på selve pladsen er en række pavilloner med hyggelige caféer samt scener til underholdning.

5 MINUTTERS GANG FRA HOTELLET:

Nyhavn – er en malerisk brostensbelagt gade langs kanalen med de karakteristiske smalle byhuse, hyggelige caféer og restauranter. Folk samles her hele året for at nyde udsigten til den smukke havn.

🇬🇧 OUR NEIGHBOURS

2 MINUTES' WALK FROM THE HOTEL:

Amalienborg Palace, the home of The Queen and The Prince Consort, is another immediate neighbour of the hotel – built in the 18th century, it is considered as one of the most important works of rococo architecture in Denmark.

When The Queen is home, The Royal Life Guards has a daily Changing of the Guards at Amalienborg Palace at twelve o'clock. During the changing they also march through the city. Please ask in our reception to know where and when to see them.

Ofelia Plads is Copenhagen's newest breathing space – a square or plaza that will be the setting for a wide range of cultural events throughout the year. Beneath Ofelia Plads there is a subterranean parking facility and, in the square, there is a number of pavilions with cafés facilities for entertainment.

5 MINUTES' WALK FROM THE HOTEL:

Nyhavn – is the picturesque, cobble-stoned street with its characteristic, colourful town houses, charming cafés and restaurants that line the canal. Copenhageners and visitors gather here all year round and enjoy the view of the harbour.

Papirøen er byens første street food marked. I de små madvogne kan du få bæredygtig mad fra alle verdenshjørner. Nyd det indendørs i de rå haller eller i solen med udsigt over byen og vandet.

10 MINUTTERS GANG FRA HOTELLET:

For enden af Nyhavn ligger Kongens Nytorv og Strøget, som løber hele vejen til Rådhuspladsen og Tivoli. Strøget er Europas længste gågade. Her finder du butikker side om side samt de tre stormagasiner Magasin du Nord, Illum og Illums Bolighus. Vi beder vores gæster om at være opmærksomme på lommetyve på Strøget.

15 MINUTTERS GANG FRA HOTELLET:

Christiansborg er Danmarks regeringsbygning, der blandt andet tilbyder rundvisning i de kongelige repræsentationslokaler, ridder salen med de kongelige gobeliner samt de kongelige stalde.

Gefionspringvandet, officielt kaldet Gefion, der med sine okser pløjer Sjælland ud af Sverige, er Københavns største monument.

Den Lille Havfrue – en af Danmarks største attraktioner fra 1913 – sidder på Langelinie og skal illustrere figuren i H.C. Andersens eventyr af samme navn.

Paper Island is the city's first genuine street food market. In the small food trucks you can get delicious sustainable street food from all corners of the world – and enjoy it indoors in the raw halls or in the sun overlooking the city's waterfront.

10 MINUTES' WALK FROM THE HOTEL:

Kongens Nytorv is located at the inner end of Nyhavn and Strøget, which is the longest pedestrian street in Europe, stretches all the way to City Hall Square and Tivoli Gardens. Lined on either side with shops, it is here that you will also find the large department stores, Magasin du Nord, Illum and Illums Bolighus. To our guests: please beware of pickpockets in the pedestrian shopping areas.

15 MINUTES' WALK FROM THE HOTEL:

The Christiansborg Palace is Denmark's seat of government. There are daily conducted tours of the Royal Reception Rooms and the Great Hall with the Queen's tapestries and, at weekends, there are conducted tours of the Royal Stables.

Gefionspringvandet, named after the goddess Gefion, who with her oxen plows Zealand out of Sweden, is the biggest monument in Copenhagen.

The Little Mermaid – one of Denmark's most famous and popular attractions from 1913 – is located at Langelinie and depicts the character from Hans Christian Andersen's fairytale of the same name.
